Hello Brothers,

April was a BUSY month! Davison sponsored a State President's charity with the dueling pianos and monthly board meeting was held that Saturday morning. After the board meeting the first lady and myself drove to Auto City to see Dave and Sandy Williams and speak of my Charity to the pool players. Congratulations to the tournament winners!

The following weekend we traveled to Rose Clair and met the State Auxiliary President for a President's charity even. Thank you Rose Clair, Thank you to them for sponsoring this event! Then we traveled to Madison Heights for the 20th annual band fest. The bands were awesome!

April 14th Your Grand Worthy President Chuck Weber came to Mighty Michigan for a visit. I met him at Royal Oak #2092. For the next couple of days we traveled to Rose Clair, Clawson, Mt. Clemens, Madison Heights, Howell, then he was met by Al Ott and Dave Ross to finish out his tour of Mighty Michigan.

Friday April 18th the first lady and myself were special guest at Three Rivers for their "Old Timers" dinner. Thank you Three Rivers for your donation to my charity.

Then on Saturday we were off to Beaverton for the annual "Follies" yes I was involved, believe me it was a blast. Thank you Beaverton for the laughter. Sorry, I did ask for no pictures to be placed on Facebook

Then April 27th was zone 1 Conference at Mt. Clemens, they did an awesome job!

After the zone 1 Conference I was off to the UP for my tour.

My time is coming to an end. It has been one heck of a ride, meeting just about every member of the state aerie and auxiliary membership of Mighty Michigan.
